	probably the most selfless act a person could do. I see numerous women struggling to conceive. I would love to have children of my own one day, but I'm in a situation where I can't date or be in a relationship because I go to a lot of modelling auditions and I want to work on my future in order to give my children an excellent life and future as well one day. It's definitely not about the money but simply the experience. I have always wanted to donate my eggs, because I've had times where I placed myself in someone else's shoes. I wouldn't want to struggle conceiving and have no other alternative. I want to help donating and giving hope to couples that lost hope and families that struggle. I hope my recipient enjoyed reading through my profile and I wish them a lot of happiness, luck and love!
