Behavioural Traits

What is most important in life to you?	Family
If you had unlimited resources and could save one thing on earth what would it be?	If I had unlimited resources, I would save our planet's natural environment. Protecting the oceans, forests, and wildlife would mean protecting the very foundation of life on Earth. A healthy planet gives future generations a chance to thrive, and I believe that caring for nature is the most powerful way to care for people too.
What are your views on religion and spirituality, and practiced religion?	I see religion and spirituality as very personal aspects of life. I believe everyone should have the freedom to practice their faith or spirituality in the way that feels right for them. Personally, I value [kindness/compassion/family/etc.] as guiding principles, and I respect all religions equally. What matters most to me is how people treat one another
Childhood religion:	Christianity

Any specific achievements or aspects of recognition in your family:	In my family, I am proud of the strong work ethic and resilience that has been passed down through generations. My parents have built stable careers through dedication and perseverance, and several relatives have excelled academically and professionally. Beyond achievements, my family is recognized for being supportive, kind, and community-minded, which I believe are values just as important as formal recognition.
Interests and hobbies:	Reading Dancing Sports
What is your preferred holiday?	Stay at home
If you were offered an all-inclusive holiday, what would it be?	If I were offered an all-inclusive holiday, I would honestly choose the comfort of a cozy retreat where I could fully relax indoors. I enjoy quiet, restful environments — a beautiful lodge, cabin, or even a luxury staycation where I could read, watch movies, cook, and recharge. For me, the best holiday isn't about traveling far, but about enjoying peace, comfort, and quality time in a calm space.
Which interesting places have you visited?	Mpumalanga( 3 roundavels, God's window, Echo caves) Mapungubwe Gold Reef City
What are your feelings on animal welfare?	I believe strongly in animal welfare and the importance of treating all animals with compassion and respect. Whether pets, farm animals, or wildlife, they deserve to be cared for responsibly and humanely. I admire efforts to protect animals and think how we treat them reflects our values as people.
Strength and weaknesses:	Strengths - being responsible, reliable, and empathetic. I value following through on commitments and supporting those around me. Weaknesses - One area I'm working on is that I can sometimes be a perfectionist. I like to make sure things are done correctly and to the best of my ability, but I'm learning to balance high standards with flexibility and to accept that not everything needs to be perfect. Another weakness is that I can occasionally overcommit myself because I want to help others, but I've been improving at prioritizing and managing my time effectively.-

What do others generally think of you?	Others generally describe me as caring, dependable, and easy to get along with. I am often told that I am supportive and a good listener, and that I bring a calm and positive energy to situations. Friends and family say they can rely on me and that I'm someone who treats people with respect and kindness.
Favourite flower:	My favorite flower is the rose because of its beauty, elegance, and timeless symbolism of love and care.
What is your favourite meal?	My favorite meal is homemade pasta with fresh vegetables and roasted chicken because it's comforting, flavorful, and reminds me of family meals and happy times spent together.
What is your favourite movie?	Blood Sisters
