Why do you want to be an egg donor and if you had a message for your recipient what would it be?	My father is a gynaecologist and I would hear stories from him and his colleagues on the women who wanted to conceive but due to unforeseen circumstances couldn't and how these women and couples didn't allow that to limit them, they looked into many options including egg donors. This truly inspired me to look into becoming an egg donor so I can help other family's start their own little family. I think it's amazing how we have this new technology and many ways for many individuals to start their own journey of having a little one and I would like to help in being apart of that. As so many people are deserving of having the opportunity to have a child. Everyone would love to have their mini me running around the house one day.
