|                                     | future. I can be a little shy when I first meet someone, but once I'm comfortable, my fun and bubbly personality comes out. I enjoy going out, trying new activities and spending quality time with the people I care about. I consider myself respectful, independent, hardworking and someone who always tries to grow and become a better version of myself. Smoker: never smoked Reason for Donating: I want to be an egg donor because I would love the opportunity to help someone or a family who may be struggling to have a child of their own. Knowing that I could play a small part in helping someone experience the joy of becoming a parent would be very meaningful to me. To my recipient, I would say: I hope this journey brings you the happiness and family you have been hoping for. I wish you strength, love and many beautiful memories with your future child. |

| Why do you want to be an egg donor and if you had a message for your recipient what would it be? | I want to be an egg donor because I would love the opportunity to help someone or a family who may be struggling to have a child of their own. Knowing that I could play a small part in helping someone experience the joy of becoming a parent would be very meaningful to me. To my recipient, I would say: I hope this journey brings you the happiness and family you have been hoping for. I wish you strength, love and many beautiful memories with your future child.                                                                                                           |

I am ambitious and determined, especially when it comes to my education and future. I can be a little shy when I first meet someone, but once I'm comfortable, my fun and bubbly personality comes out. I enjoy going out, trying new activities and spending quality time with the people I care about. I consider myself respectful, independent, hardworking and someone who always tries to grow and become a better version of myself. |
