	can. I donate blood, platelet and have recently enquired about donating stem sells. Message to my future recipient would be: Dear Future Mom and Dad, Being a Parent is really a blessing and a curse! You don't get sick days off, you don't get your five minutes of rest time and sometimes you won't get sleep. And you constantly have to re-evaluate yourself and your parenting skill. BUT. Having someone choose you every single minute of every single day is really the best feeling in the world, they don't care how much money you have, what clothes you wear or even if you had time to brush your teeth yet. I can tell you out of personal experience this is the best gift I can give to someone else. Having a child, experiencing that love is really indescribable. It's like having cake every morning for breakfast without getting fat !(tried to describe it). You are going to start this journey and please remember that children don't come with manuals, it doesn't matter how many books you read, how many seminars you attend nothing will prepare you for this blessing in your life. Love A Selfless donor.
