Why do you want to be an egg donor and if you had a message for your recipient what would it be?	I'd like to help people who want children but can't conceive for whatever reason. Babies bring joy and happiness in people so I want to help where I can.
How do you best describe yourself?	I'm introverted and reflective, shy, open minded person and also optimistic. I see myself as responsible and reliable. I'm quiet most of the time and I don't like going out but I love traveling. I don't have a big group of friends just a small intimate circle. I'm sensitive and emotional sometimes. I love cooking, baking, running and swimming. I'm passionate about cars and I love driving around. I'm currently studying mechanical/marine engineering. Well I did diploma in Mechanical engineering then I changed it to marine engineering and I'm currently training as a engine cadet. When I was growing up I also wanted to be a police officer. My family used to say it would suit me so much because I'm also kind of too strict when it comes to law and rules. I would still love to become a police officer unfortunately I can't be two things at once. My friends would describe me as someone who loves and cares for everyone.
